

Colonial Theatre

John Canning & Co. restored the plasterwork throughout the Colonial Theatre's main auditorium and public spaces, including casting and restoring ornamental plaster.

PROJECT DETAILS

John Canning & Co. restored the plaster work throughout the Colonial Theatre's main auditorium and public spaces.

The auditorium was originally designed by Pittsfield architect Joseph McArthur Vance and was completed in 1903.

Our work included the reattachment of historic plaster and fabrication of missing ornament.

GALLERY

 Project Summary PDF

 APTNE 2019: Restoring Historic Theaters in the 21st Century

BUILDING FACTS

 Location: Pittsfield, MA

 Built: 1903

 Architect: Joseph McArthur Vance & J.B. McElfrick

 Style: American Colonial

SCOPE

- Plaster Conditions Analysis
- Plaster Stabilization & Restoration
- Ornamental Plaster Restoration & Fabrication
- General Painting

PROJECT TEAM

 Architect: OTJ Architects

 Contractor: Barr & Barr, Inc.