

Eisenhower Executive Office Building

In the Secretary of War Suite at the EEOB in Washington DC, John Canning & Co. conducted the historic research, defined, and performed the preservation and restoration of historic interior decoration.

PROJECT DETAILS

John Canning & Co. performed decorative finishes analysis and consulting for the Eisenhower Executive Office Building's historic suite of rooms. We in-painted and reinstated the decorative painting and free-hand art work on the ceiling, cove, and cornice.

GALLERY

 Project Summary PDF

BUILDING FACTS

 Location: Washington, DC

 Built: 1888

 Original Architect: Alfred B. Mullet

 Style: French Second Empire

 Status: National Historic Landmark

AWARDS

 2008 White House Recognition

SCOPE

- Historic Paint Analysis
- Restoration & Conservation
- Decorative Painting Restoration
- Color Matching and Inpainting
- Gilding
- Glazing
- Bronzing
- Marbling

PROJECT TEAM

 Contractor: Grunley Construction Co., Inc.